- The Local Plan will hopefully be adopted in the summer, but West Suffolk Council will then have to start straightway on a new Local Plan to reflect changes to the National Planning Policy Framework.
- Devolution and the creation of a combined mayoral authority with Norfolk and Suffolk.
- The local government reorganisation to form a unitary authority in Suffolk. SCC has put forward a case for one unitary council. The districts and borough councils have submitted a case for two or three unitary authorities. Greater Ipswich, East and West Suffolk.

The first elections would be for a mayor. The second election would be for a shadow authority. During the transition period the shadow authority would run the council until the unitary authority is fully up and running.
